JOHN BABATUNDE OLADEJI

Email: joladeji@live.nmhu.edu | johnboladeji@gmail.com
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/johnboladeji-787b8b140
Github: https://github.com/johnboladeji

EDUCATION

New Mexico Highlands University, Las Vegas, NM Expected Dec. 2026
Master of Arts in English (Linguistics, Literary, and Composition)
Thesis: "Decolonizing the Interface: A Rhetorical Framework for Culturally Attentive UX Writing in Nigerian and American Fintech Platforms."*

Dev & Design Academy 2025–2026
Professional Certificate in UI/UX Design, AI-Assisted MVP Development & Product Thinking

SQI College of ICT, Ogbomoso, Nigeria 2021–2022
Professional Certificate in Digital Interface and Design

O2 Academy, Lagos, Nigeria 2018
Professional Certificate in Brand Communication and Advertising

Ekiti State University, Ado-Ekiti, Nigeria 2011–2015
Bachelor of Arts (Education) in English

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Human-computer interaction and the rhetoric of digital interfaces, with particular attention to how interface language, microcopy, and system design encode cultural values and shape user experience; human-centered and value-sensitive design of AI-mediated systems; culturally attentive and decolonial approaches to interaction and interface design; community-centered and participatory design for underserved and cross-cultural users; comparative digital rhetorics and design across African and North American contexts; multimodal discourse and platformed identity; and the sociotechnical dynamics of financial technology, trust, and user agency. My current work develops the Culturally Attentive Rhetorical Framework (CARF), which combines Critical Technocultural Discourse Analysis and Value Sensitive Design to examine how fintech interfaces encode cultural assumptions across national contexts and to move from that analysis toward more just, human-centered design.

MANUSCRIPTS IN PREPARATION

Oladeji, J. B. "The Rhetoric of Fintech: How Digital Platforms Shape Public Perception of Financial Services and Trust in Accounting Systems."

Oladeji, J. B. "Navigating Authenticity: Digital Code-Switching and Multilingual Identity on TikTok in Nigeria and the United States."

Oladeji, J. B. "Language, Ideology, and Satirical Resistance in Wole Soyinka's The Lion and the Jewel: A Stylistic Reading of the Opening Sidi–Lakunle Dialogue."

Oladeji, J. B. "Balancing Human Creativity and Artificial Intelligence Productivity: An Empirical Analysis of the Evolving Digital Economy."

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Oladeji, J. B. (2026). "Trapped in the Algorithm: How Echo Chambers and Cognitive Biases Fuel Misinformation." Paper presented at the Southwest Popular/American Culture Association (SWPACA) 47th Annual Conference.

Oladeji, J. B. (2025). "Navigating Authenticity: Digital Code-Switching as Identity Construction on TikTok in Nigeria and the United States." Paper presented at the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) 39th Annual Conference.

RESEARCH AND ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Instructor, First-Year Rhetoric and Composition 2026–Present
Department of English, New Mexico Highlands University

- Teach first-year rhetoric, writing, and composition, guiding students from drafting through revision.
- Design lessons, assignments, and feedback grounded in rhetoric, audience awareness, and critical reading.
- Integrate digital literacy and multimodal composition into first-year writing instruction.

Graduate Assistant, Digital Publishing & Editorial Development 2026–Present
New Mexico Review (University Literary Journal), NMHU

- Design and implement digital editorial frameworks supporting poetry, translation, commentary, and visual art.
- Develop submission guidelines and content workflows for experimental literary practices.
- Analyze reader interaction and accessibility to strengthen interdisciplinary engagement and content delivery.

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Writing Center 2025–Present
New Mexico Highlands University

- Provide individualized writing instruction from brainstorming through final draft; lead workshops on academic writing and digital literacy.
- Develop instructional materials grounded in rhetoric, critical thinking, and audience awareness.
- Participate in ongoing pedagogical training and reflective-practice cycles.
- Mentored students in academic writing, reading comprehension, and public communication.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Creative Lead, GRAMEF Digital Agency 2023–2025
Wolverhampton, United Kingdom

- Directed digital campaigns emphasizing narrative strategy, user experience, and cross-platform rhetorical coherence.
- Led interdisciplinary teams of designers, writers, and developers to produce integrated visual and textual communication.
- Built evaluation frameworks for audience engagement, usability, and content performance.

Group Brand / Packaging Designer, SUMAL Foods Ltd. 2022–2023
Nigeria

- Designed packaging systems and brand assets across the company's food product lines.
- Maintained visual consistency of brand identity across retail, print, and product touchpoints.

Brand Strategist, AFRIKRAFT Studios 2018–2022
Nigeria

- Conducted audience, market, and rhetorical research to inform brand messaging.
- Produced multimodal content integrating linguistic analysis with cultural context.
- Evaluated campaign outcomes and refined communication strategies based on empirical feedback.

Lead Brand Designer, CHECKERS Africa 2020–2021
Nigeria

- Led brand identity and visual design direction across campaigns and product collateral.
- Guided design standards and mentored junior designers on brand execution.

Associate Senior Print Designer, Printhouse Nigeria 2018–2020

- Produced print-ready design for marketing, packaging, and editorial collateral.
- Upheld production and brand standards in collaboration with the senior design team.

Graphic Designer, Ibadan Business School 2016–2018
Ibadan, Nigeria

- Created visual assets for print and digital communication, including layout, typography, and illustration.
- Supported brand campaigns from concept through to final artwork.

SELECTED PROJECTS AND VENTURES

Caira — Founder & Product Lead 2024–Present

Diaspora eldercare coordination platform (cairacare.com)

- Led the venture end to end — brand identity, user research, product design, and full-stack development of the mobile application and backend.
- Designed the coordination model spanning shared tasks, check-ins, and cross-border care-support workflows for globally dispersed families.

NexusCore —Full stack Product Lead 2025–Present

AI-powered financial platform for underserved Nigerian SMBs

- Built a WhatsApp-based AI sales assistant integrated with automated payment routing for merchants operating outside the formal banking economy.

OYNA Youth Software Development Programme — Lead Instructor 2025–Present

Software-development training initiative

- Authored the full curriculum and student handbooks; mentor participants from first commit to a deployed, production-grade marketplace application.

MOVA — Design Engineer In Development

Last-mile logistics marketplace for Lagos

- Designing a coordinated fulfillment platform connecting vendors, delivery riders, and customers.

SERVICE AND OUTREACH

Media and Publicity Coordinator, Rebrand Network Initiatives 2020–Present

- Develop strategic communication campaigns on climate change, drawing on persuasive rhetoric and multimodal storytelling.

Project Coordinator, Rethink Educational Initiatives 2017–Present

- Design educational initiatives for underserved communities; produce multimedia content supporting literacy and academic engagement.

SKILLS AND METHODS

Research Methods: Critical Technocultural Discourse Analysis (CTDA); Value Sensitive Design; digital ethnography; user research and usability evaluation; participatory and co-design methods; qualitative, textual, and content analysis; multimodal discourse analysis; rhetorical and stylistic critique.

Design & Development: Figma, Adobe Photoshop & Illustrator; UX/UI design, design systems, and prototyping; React, Next.js, TypeScript, React Native (Expo), Node.js/Fastify, and PostgreSQL; front-end and full-stack product development.

Writing: Academic writing; technical writing; UX writing and microcopy; content strategy; editorial development.

Pedagogy: Technical writing; writing instruction; curriculum development; one-to-one tutoring; workshop facilitation.

REFERENCES

Available upon request.